GOOD WORK IS BEING DONE BY NEW OFFICER

The newly appointed health and ordinance officer, J. S. Martz, is finding spots to do these days, and he's just going ahead and doing it as easy and quiet like, as though he'd been at it for years.

He's making no bluster, and he's not making any bluff with anyone. If he sees what he thinks is a nuisance or an irregularity, he quietly and confidentially goes to the people and tells them of it in a kind, inoffensive way, and advises that a remedy be found, and almost invariably his requests have been complied with without a murmer.

Among families, more particularly in sections, Mr. Martz found quite a few who refused to provide garbage cans, persisting in throwing the refuse in barrels, boxes, or on open lots, and as this became very offensive to neighbors, complaints were made, and for three or four weeks prior to Mr. Martz's being appointed, the savory condition about certain sections of the town was anything but pleasant.

Some yards needed cleaning; sewer and waste water connections had been neglected in many places, and various other irregularities were to be found, but to a great measure, we are pleased to say, corrections have been and are being made as rapidly as possible.

This morning, everybody as they passed up Schoonmaker avenue to or from work imagined they had, Rip-vanwinkle-like, overslept a day or two, and it was Sunday. Everything as clear and clean along the sidewalk, not a trunk, shoes or pair of pants to be seen, except one trunk out at the New York Bargain store near Fifth street.

This was in compliance with the annual spasmodic enforcement of the ordinance regulating the display of goods on the sidewalk by store-keepers, and through a notice issued to each store-keeper personally by Ordinance Officer Martz a few days ago.

By many of the better stores on the street this is hailed with gladness, as it is practiced more because one does it and the others, not caring to be out-done, follow. Of course the order is general, but on Donner avenue the practice is not common.

Officer Martz now is known by his blue suit, brass buttons and badge, and the manner in which his work is being done is such to command their respect of the people, and more ready and willing compliance than could be accomplished by the domineering authoritive barn-storming way resorted to by many who are vested with official authority.

GRAND OPENING AT THE CANDY KITCHEN

The Philadelphia Candy Kitchen management is planning great things for Friday evening in the way of an "opening," which is destined to eclipse anything of the sort offered the people of Monessen and vicinity yet this season. Workmen are now busy re-modeling the place and after the proposed changes are made, the parlors will be re-decorated with flowers, fernery, national colors, etc., and made the most enticing place in this locality.

The "opening" will begin at 7 o'clock Friday evening and continue until midnight, to which everyone is most cordially invited. Special instrumental music will be furnished and souvenirs will be given during the evening. The public should know that the "Philadelphia" manufactures all its ice cream, and every flavor is made fresh every day in their own factory, and can be bought either at retail or wholesale. In the factory are also special facilities for home-made candies and the finest and freshest confections are to be had daily. In fact everything to be found in a high class place can be had at the "Philadelphia," and by all means, you must not forget the "Opening" Friday evening.

EFFORT TO DETERMINE AS TO SUGGESTED VACANCY IN THE COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE

Hearing at Greensburg Yesterday in the Shields Case Leaves it as Before, Pretty Much Muddled. Judges Withold Decision

There may be no vacancy in the office of County Commissioner as a result of the inability of John E. Shields to serve on account of his sentence to the Western penitentiary. Argument as to a "casual" vacancy was heard before Judges Doty and McConnell yesterday. James S. Moorehead, representing Grant McGarey, of Vandergrift, who is after the appointment, brought the matter to the attenton to the court by asking that Shields be dismissed from office and that he, McGarey be appointed. It was argued that John E. Shields was elected to the office of county commissioner in 1911 and entered upon the duties of that office, but since then Shields had been convicted of several crimes for which he was sentenced and taken to the Western Penitentiary, where he is now serving a term of imprisonment. Mr. Moorehead stated that the condition which now exists in the commissioners' office never before existed and that the constitution of this State is not very clear in its provisions for such emergencies. He stated that in the constitution convention debates no discussion of this condition was ever presented or brought out.

Coming to the point of filling a vacancy, Mr. Moorhead argued that under the fourteenth article, seventh section, of the constitution, the court of common pleas has the right to fill such vacancy. The term "casual" vacancy was discussed at great length and was interpreted to mean "accidental," "fortuitous" or "unusual." He held that the vacancy is accidental and fortuitous. Cases were cited where certain officials were rendered incapable to hold office on account of becoming insane. He held that in instances where the official became sane he was returned to his office if it were within his term of office. He held that in the event that Shields should be pardoned within his term as county commissioner he could be returned to office.

Hon. E. E. Robbins appeared for Shields. He argued no vacancy exists, either casually or otherwise. First said Mr. Robbins, "it is necessary to determine that there is a vacancy, and in the event there should be, it would then be necessary to determine the character of such vacancy." But he argued that no proper proceedings had been brought to declare a vacancy, that Shields had not been convicted of any crime while acting as county commissioner. He contended that there is no vacancy, and will be no vacancy until it has been legally declared. He said Shields had not moved away from the county, and not become insane or resigned the office. He claimed that there is no authority of law to base a casual vacancy in this case. He held that there can be no vacancy until the courts or a two thirds vote of the Senate so decree it. Mr. Robbins pointed out the way to have the vacancy declared and that either of two steps must be taken—one by a writ of quo warranto coming up from a jury trial for hearing the matter, to the State Senate which will not meet until the first of next year.

In event of a quo warranto proceedings it would give Shields the right of defence in a jury trial and his side of the case would be clearly presented and argued. But on the other hand Shields has not committed any crime as county commissioner and therefore it might be a difficult matter to oust him. Robbins declared that the learned counsel which preceded him had just said that in the event of a pardon Shields had a right to the office to which the people elected him and that in any event an appointment would only be a temporary matter. Neither is there reason for a Senatorial impeachment.

The entire matter seems to be a muddle. It will be several days before the Court will take up the question to determine whether or not a vacancy exists and the matter may be held up indefinitely. Next week the attorneys for Shields will go before the pardon board asking that Shields be released from prison and restored to office. The Court may take no action until the pardon board is heard from. Both Grant McGarey and Dr. Ringer of Jeannette have filed petitions asking for the appointment to the supposed vacancy. They claim the fact of their being candidates in the primary of 911 should give them a preferance for the appointment. A number of other applications are also before the court, it is understood.

SANE PYROTECHNICS WILL BE PERMITTED

As has been the case in past years the sale of fireworks this year in local stores will not be restricted by any special orders from the Burgess beyond the fact that nothing can be placed on sale which violates in any way the state law regarding the sale of explosives for the Fourth. Hundreds lose their lives every year because of lock jaw or tetanus which sets in after one has been injured by coming in contact with firecrackers and fireworks of every description and to meet the Fourth of July demands, large supplies of tetanus antitoxin have been ordered for the sixty-seven distributing stations throughout the Commonwealth, by Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, Commissioner of Health. The local station where this antitoxin may be secured is on Second street near the corner of Schoonmaker and is in charge of Dr. Morgan J. Cramer who is assisted by Miss Marie Watson, as nurse.

Despite the nation wide movement for "A Safe and Sane Fourth," which has been steadily growing during the last few years, the total number of accidents resulting in the dreaded tetanus or lock-jaw, is greater on that day than any other in the three hundred and sixty-five.

The serum which the Departent of Health distributes to the poor is used to immunize the victims of fire-cracker, gun shot and other wounds. When it is used immediately following the accident or within twenty-four or even thirty-six hours thereafter, the danger of infection is reduced to a minimum.

A marriage license was issued in Greensburgh the other day to Miss Mary Etzel and Joseph Lessne both of this place.

CHILDREN ARE WORRIED BY MONEY LOSS

Considerable sympathy was aroused here yesterday on account of two children who came from Fayette City on the 11 a. m. train to transact some business for their parents. Clara Morgan age 14 years and her little brother 8 years old alighted from the train at the P. & L. E. station and went to a Donner avenue business house to do some trading when the girl discovered her purse and money, $6.00 in all, was gone.

The children were distracted, almost, and thinking they had lost it in town, they hunted for a time but were eventually sent to the Daily Independent office to place a lost advertisement in the evening issue.

The faces of the children were tear stained and it was with difficulty that they told their story.

About 2:15, just as the paper was going to press the two children returned to the office with the information that the purse and money was in Pittsburgh, they having left it on the car seat when they got off the train at Monessen, and the train men finding it, phoned back to Station Agent Archie Dunlap, who lifted the burden from the little ones' hearts by telling them their money was safe and would be brought back on the evening train. The children returned home on the 2:20 train, glad-hearted, but in possession of an experience which they will always remember, even to tell their children and grand children in years to come.

Shall We Name the Tree?

Everyone ought to cultivate a friendship for trees, and along with his animal friends have a few trees friends. He could do no better to commemorate an event in his family life than to set out a tree and name it with the name of what he would remember—have arbor days of his own. Where a family has been sentimental enough to do this you will find trees about the house named John, Henry, Susie, Clara, etc., in memory of the birth of the children. You will see at tree somewhere near the gate called the telephone tree, because it as planted the year the telephone was put in the house. There may be another tree somewhere near that one called the free delivery tree, commemorating the year the mail was first brought to the door. There will also likely be some small trees, among them the auto tree, in memory of the first automobile owned, and the air tree, to remember the thrill experienced upon seeing the first aeroplane. What romance and interest this adds to rural or suburban life.

A Profitable Diversion

As a hobby, or diversion, or something outside of regular employment, or in connection with berries, fruit or poultry, beekeeping is a good thing for women, as it is for almost everyone else. The cost of a good colony of Italian bees in a modern hive need not be more than $10, and while the average surplus yield will not be more than 35 pounds, they may yield in a single season as much as 150 pounds. Probably the most economical and satisfactory way for the beginner, would be to get a hive fully equipped from the manufacturer, and have a swarm put into it by some neighbor or a bee raiser during June, before the flow of honey from clover begins. If they are not pure, buy an Italian queen and introduce her to the colony after removing the old queen. As the queen is the mother of all the bees in a hive, and as the average life of the worker-bee is but 45 days, all will be changed to yellow, gentle Italians before winter and the work or pastime will be found pleasent as well as profitable.

Retort and Comment

"All honor to the Union dead," remarked an exchange in its Memorial Day issue. Yes, and to the Confederate dead, too. While mistaken, they fought for a principle, and went at it hard enough to make the North know, after it got through, that it had been in a real fight.

A thornless blackberry is the latest "amazing" discovery credited to Luther Burbank, who is said to have worked 10 years to produce it. Next he will be heralded as the originator of the seedless orange, an odorless rose, and a bloomless strawberry.

"Under certain circumstances," says a Pennsylvania judge, "a man is justified in whipping his wife." The circumstances referred to, we presume, must be size, weight, and ability to reciprocate—return good for evil—so-to-speak.

It is said that June 13 in history is a very memorable day. On this date in the year 1533, King Henry VIII invented strawberry shortcake and in 1630 Miles Standish was pinched by the Puritans for kissing his wife on Sunday.

Persons preparing for the summer vacation will necessarily be compelled to devote considerable more time figuring out just how to properly pack the wallet this year, than they will to pack the grip.

The woman may possibly not be insane merely because she possesses thirty or more summer hats, but it's dollars to doughnuts that her husband is not far from the yawning doors of the asylum.

There is some talk of hiring three men to kill all the flies and two to exterminate the mosquitoes within the bounds of Charleroi. It is to be hoped they will get paid by the day and not piece work.

After this thing is all over, Teddy surely ought to be in proper fettle to assist Jack Johnson very materially with his preliminary training for that Fourth of July match.

We know a Monessen man who when young worked, and worked hard in order to pay his way through college, and he's working now to pay his son's way.

From present indications that corps of Red Cross nurses assigned to Chicago this week will find plenty to do bandaging up sore heads.

The only real point of resemblance we can see that Roosevelt bears to Lincoln is in his modesty.

Synod Opposed to Billy

At the closing session of the seventeenth annual meeting of the Pittsburgh Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Youngstown, O., Tuesday, the Synod as a body recorded a strong protest against certain forms of revival as conducted by Billy Sunday, and adopted a resolution to adhere rigidly to the regular forms of education and church proceedings. Certain forms of revival were termed "graft, profitable to the evangelist and ruinous to the church."

They Handle Some Milk

More than 10,000 quarts of milk are handled daily by the Erie county milk association, which began business in December, 1899. The association now owns a three-story brick building that cost $26,000, and is equipped with $13,000 worth of apparatus for handling all classes of dairy products. Business has grown from about $100,000 the first year to $250,000.

Pratt Loses One Leg

William Pratt, the Brownsville agent for the Indian motorcycle who is well known by motorists from all along the valley, was struck by an auto yesterday morning and injured to such extent that he will lose a leg. His leg was terribly splintered and crushed. In fact the bones of the lower part of his leg were smashed into small splinters. Pratt was taken to the Mercy hospital at Pittsburgh, where the amputation will be performed.

Rich Find of Opals.

A short time ago a party of three miners came upon a sensational find of opal in old ground at White Cliffs, N. S. W. They came upon the stone 15 feet below the surface, lodged round a massive boulder 8 feet square. It is the biggest find unearthed for years, and comprises some beautiful stones.

REPORTER IS A HISTORIAN

No Other Is So True, and Few Are So Entertaining and So Useful.

A police reporter, indeed (or a penny-a-liner, as he is sometimes, with too much levity, styled), is the truest historian of his age. And, as no other histories are half so true, so few are nearly so entertaining, or so useful, either, as those which he indites; there only have we the manners of the time caught "living as they rise"—served up, as it were, piping hot—and human nature naturally delineated; everywhere else it is dressed up, varnished over, idealized, perhaps, or otherwise so metamorphosed or mystified as hardly to be recognized for the same thing that one is accustomed to see and have to do with in its original condition of flesh and blood. Nay, your penny-a-liner is not the greatest of historians merely, but the most penetrating of philosophers, going to the root of the matter, and the most instructive of poets and dramatists, not only "high actions and high passions best describing," but low ones quite as well. All this he is by reason of the matter-of-fact spirit in which he works.

For this is his distinction, that (to the shame of literature it must be confesed) he is the only description of man of letters who is not in some sort, as such, a systematic liar. All other writers set themselves to embellish, elevate, refine truth and Nature—some have gone the length of maintaining that this falsification, this lying, is the very soul and indispensable essence of the poetical, in all its forms; he alone takes down and communicates what he hears and sees simply as he hears and sees it—"among the faithless, faithful ones he."

THIEVES OF PARIS CAUGHT

Extraordinary Collection of Stolen Property Found in Their Camp in a Suburb.

The Paris police force made a remarkable haul at the suburb of Montreuil-sous-Bois. Eighteen men were arrested, and an enormous beterogeneous stock of stolen property was seized. The seizure was made in a camp of amateurly constructed houses, which was divided between two gangs of thieves and apaches. Most of the members belonged to the chief band, commonly known as "Boers," owing to their houses being known as "Transvaal City."

Inquiries made by the police showed that every Sunday morning the inhabitants of "Transvaal City" sold stolen meat at 4d a pound, and organized penny lotteries with prizes such as clocks, stolen watches, bicycles and stores of preserved groceries. The police seized a quantity of harness, saddlery, bicycles, sewing machines, typewriters, mattresses and bedding, and in a newly plastered ceiling they unearthed jewelry and watches enough to stock two or three jewelers' shops.

The information on which the police acted was given by a poor woman who had been kept in bondage by the thieves in order to do their cooking for them. Every one of them could steal with both audacity and cunning, but not one could as much as cook a potato.

Latest in Newspapers.

The "animated newspaper" issued by a French firm for display in moving-picture establishments is said to be the most costly newspaper issued from the standpoint of the subscriber, as one of these reels costs many dollars. These films are very popular with a certain class of patrons of the "movies." They are edited in much the same manner as the typical newspaper. A corps of operators is kept ready and the editor is in constant touch with many sources of news. As soon as a promising tip reaches him, the editor sends one, two or as many men as he thinks necessary for the purpose. Frequently the three films are patched together to make one complete reel. Correspondents are maintained at different points, and these are assigned by telegraph to go to certain points where their services may be needed. Mine explosions and railroad accidents are regarded as particularly attractive features, and men are sent at once to these whenever they are reasonably accessible. Pictures of the debris and the work of removal are always objects of interest to patrons of the "movies."

Catch Smelts by the Wagonload.

A great run of smelt is now going up the Sandy river, the first one in about eight years. The little fish are to be seen in a solid column coming from the Columbia river.

Hundreds of persons, attracted by the sight, are catching the smelt in dip nets and buckets and hauling them away by the wagonload. Farmers are coming in by the score every day from every direction and from long distances to get a supply of fish for pickling and smoking.

The run probably will last for several days, and then the season for the smelt will close until next winter.—Troutdale correspondence San Francisco Chronicle.

F. S. Regan has been appointed relief agent on the Ohio division of the P. and L. E. railroad and leaves tomorrow for his first stop at Alliance, O.

Homann's shoe store will be closed all day tomorrow in preparation for the big sale. The clerks will be busily employed in preparing for the opening Saturday morning.

The Roughers and the Rollers of the Tin mill will clash in a baseball game at Page park on Saturday morning and everything promises that the contest will be the season's "premier event."

C. C. Sullivan, yardmaster of the P. and L. E. is removing his family here from the former home in Beaver Falls. They will take up their residence in the First National Bank flats.

Word has been received from the Janavitz's who are at Markleton in Somerset county and Mr. Janavitz is reported to be benefiting by the climate. This will be welcome news here to the many friends of the family.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church will serve in the church basement, a lunch at noon on Saturday and supper in the evening at a nominal charge for each meal. Everyone invited. 4-3t

Preliminary meetings and general arrangements are being made in Greensburg for holding the County Convention of the Federated Catholic Societies there August 10 and 11. The duties of the federated societies are largely social, to aid church work, and a large attendance is anticipated.

The bogus rent collector is at work in Greensburg. After posting up on real estate statististics, agencies, properties etc., he sallies forth, makes the calls, introduces himself, makes his modest request, and in most cases gets the money. He manages to make the call about the right time. But of course shortly after he disappears, comes the regular collector and there's where the rub comes for the poor renter.

BIG S. S. CONVENTION FOR THE COMING WEEK

Charleroi will be the mecca of Sunday school religious workers all over Washington county next week when the 17th annual Sunday school convention will be held there. Many hundred visitors will be there as delegates to the convention, which it is expected by the county officers will be the largest and best in the county's history.

Final preparations are now being made by the county executive cabinet and the Charleroi district executive cabinet for the affair. The larger meetings of the convention will be held in a big convention tent that will be pitched on the grounds owned by the government at the corner of Seventh street and Fallowfield avenue.

The first event of note in connection with the convention will be a concert and recital to be given by the Charleroi Choral society on Wednesday, June 19. I. T. Daniels, supervisor of music in the Charleroi public schools will direct this concert.

The two convention days, June 20 and 21, will be packed full of good things for Sunday school people. The first event that will attract public attention will be a children's parade on Thursday morning. Conferences will constitute the feature of the two days' session.

A Hot Game For Saturday

Next Saturday afternoon at the local ball park the Page A. A. will have as their opponents the strong Eden Park team of McKeesport. The Eden Park aggregation is said to be one of the strongest in the lower valley town and they won the championship of the Youghiogheny valley last year over a classy field of teams. The local boys it seems are fast climbing into the limelight as a team that will have to be reckoned with in Western Pennsylvania amateur circles. With but one defeat and four victories so far this season the team promises to eclipse their enviable record of last year.

To Sing at S. S. Convention

The combined choirs of Trinity Episcopal Mission of Monessen and St. Mary's church of Charleroi will sing at the morning service at the latter church next Sunday. The local choir has been recently re-organized, and with St. Mary's choir should render a fine musical program. Geo. Heimbolt, tenor and leader of the Monessen choir will render the offeratory.

STRONG VAUDEVILLE AT OLYMPIC THEATRE

The vaudeville bill at the Olympic theatre on Friday and Saturday promises to be the best entertainment of its kind ever offered and we guarantee that it will not prove a disappointment to our patrons. Four acts consisting of seven people in comedy, music, singing, dancing and novelty sketches. Be sure and see this show. As a special inducement to our patrons to visit the Olympic and also to become acquainted with the Mikalarias and Berbatis ice cream parlor, all those who attend on Friday evening will receive absolutely free a dish of either cocoanut custard or butterscotch ice cream or sherbet. All children who can spell Olympic theatre will be admitted free between the hours of 1:30 and 2 o'clock. 1t

Home Guards Getting Numerous

The Home Guards are to hold their regular bi-weekly meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the opera house hall, at which a large class of new members are to be initiated. Organizer Moss of Braddock will be here and have charge of the work. All old members are expected to be in attendance as a very interesting meeting is looked for.

AT THE STAR

A strong vaudeville bill is on for tonight at the Star theatre, one to keep you laughing and cause you to forget your troubles—Roxie and Wayne in a comedy novelty sketch will be followed by Joseph Regon's musical dogs, to be climaxed by the laughing farce, "The Experienced Doctor." This is another of "Mac's" "put together for laughing purposes only" skits, and he told us on the q. t. that no one should miss it. Photo plays complete the bill. Admission 10 cents, children 5 cents. 1t

Local Cases to be Heard

The hearing of cases on the audit list for the May term in the Orphan's court was concluded Tuesday before Judge Copeland. The session was lenghty, much time being taken up in the presentation and proving of claims in a number of estates. Among the cases from this township up for hearing were those of Arturo Fontanelli—$1,991.76; Alexander West—$4,830.80 and Mary E. Price—$5,792.90.

A number of cases listed for hearings were postponed until next Friday. Judge Copeland will hold sessions on June 15 and 29. There will be no sessions of the court during July and August but Judge Copeland willbe at hischambers at intervals during this time to hand down decrees.

The following equity cases were among those continued over when court adjourned on last Friday. Marianno Serrino vs. the Pittsburgh Steel Company. Also Rose Bell vs. the Pittsburgh Steel Company. These cases will probably be heard during August term of court.

The mangled body of the man found on the railroad track near the Fayette City coal tipple Sunday, has been identified as that of John Clarence Wilson, of Newell. The widow and six children survive.

CREDIT ALL TO BLACK CAT

Partners and Employes of New York Real Estate Firm Have Joined Ranks of Believers.

Never say there is no luck in a black cat. For months a well-known real estate firm in the Fifth avenue region had been doing just a rent-paying business. Then, one day, a gaunt, rib-showing, dejected black cat paused on the threshold and licked his chops, and looked in.

"Kitty, kitty," said the junior partner. Tom came in. The junior partner sent the office boy to the nearest restaurant to get a saucer of milk. That night Tom curled up on the junior's desk, and next day the latter made a $400,000 sale.

"Mere accident," said the firm's most expensive salesman. "Pooh! Ridiculous superstition! Here, kitty!"

So he won Tom's transitory affections with liver and honeyed words. It got so that he couldn't come in the office without Tom sharpening his claws on the legs of his new $70 suit. But the high-priced salesman didn't complain. He got his reward, for after a time he made the best sale he'd turned off in a year. The managing partner lined his waste basket with silk and carelessly threw catnip under his desk, and in other fashions shamelessly catered to the sensual appetites of that stray feline. Tom began to observe him on a Monday. Before Saturday of that week the managing partner had sold a summer hotel, which had been a drug on the market for two years. Apart from these sales the general business of the office increased largely from the day of Tom's entrance.

"I've heard that care would kill a cat," said the managing partner "But say, is there any danger to dear old Tom if we overfeed him?"—Cincinnati Times Star.

HEARD ONLY CALL OF DUTY

Brave Irish Physician Scorned Danger When Welfare of Patient Was at Stake.

The talk of how Dr. O'Brien of Inismore braved the Atlantic storm to help a sick patient has made all western Ireland ring with his praises.

He received a wire that his services were urgently needed on the island of Inniamaan, but the storm was raging so fiercely that he had difficulty in finding a crew willing to put to sea. At last he succeeded and the corragh—a small canvas boat—started on its four and a half mile journey through the surging waters that ran with terrific force between Inisimore and Inismaan.

It was a life and death battle all the way, half the men striving to keep the boat headed across the straits while the rest bailed out the water that was continually shipped. At length Inismaan was reached, the patient's life was saved and the return journey began.

By that time a regular hurricane was blowing and several times the doctor and his crew seemed on the point of death when they happened upon some trawlers at anchor, with which they sheltered till a lull in the tempest enabled them to make a dash for the shore.

Something Hubby Didn't Know.

Miss Elsie de Wolfe, "America's best dressed woman," was talking about the draped skirts of the new fashions.

"I heard an Easter anecdote the other day about these new skirts," she said.

"A young wife, at the Marlborough-Blenheim at Atlantic City, appeared before her husband in a draped suit of cream colored cloth, ready for the boardwalk's Easter parade.

"'How do I look, George?' she said.

"'Fine.'

"'But tell me, George, does my skirt hang even all around?'

"'Yes' said George, after a close look. 'Yes, quite even.'

"'Oh, dear!' said she, 'then I'll have to go upstairs again. These new draped skirts, you know, don't hang right if they hang even.'"

Woman Doctors in Siberia.

A number of influential Siberians are petitioning the Ministry of Education in St. Petersburg to allow women to be admitted to the medical faculty in the University of Tobolsk. The petitioners point out that there is a wide field for women doctors in Siberia, where it is often difficult for settlers to get medical aid.

There are many Mohammedans in the country, and it is explained that only women doctors can come to their help in illness, as they do not permit men to see their wives and daughters. Many women have entered the medical profession in Russia proper, and there are a great many women practicing dentistry, a department of surgery which does not seem to have attractions for the English woman.

Pros and Cons of Home Work.

Fifty girls in the highest class in a certain English council school on a recent occasion, when the school was thrown open to the inspection of parents, treated the visitors to a spirited debate on the question of compulsory home work. Mothers who accepted an invitation to speak were about equally divided on the subject, and when the motion was put to the whole class twenty-nine voted for obligatory home lessons and fourteen against them. Some of the girls refrained from committing themselves on the question.

WOMEN, AVOID OPERATIONS

Many Unsuccessful — And Worse Suffering Often Follows. Mrs. Rock's Case A Warning.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will show how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when often it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement.

Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—Mrs. ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has restored the health of thousands of suffering women. Why don't you try it?

Famous Motion Pictures at Luna

At the Luna Tuesday June 18, the pictures of the discovery of Ameri a just released by the Selig Film Company are the most vivid, elaborate and expensive pictures ever made. The subject has been pronounced by pulpit, press, critics, historians and public to be an unequalled triumph in the art of moving pictures. Over three years was required in the production of this feature. 350 people are shown in the presentation and the total amount expended amounts up to $50,000. 3,000 feet of the most massive and elaborate settings, gorgeous costumes, perfect photography and an all absorbing story of indescribable pictorial magnificence. A picture every man, woman and child should see. 2-5t

DONORA CURB MARKET HAS SUCCESSFUL OPENING

Six farmers with wagons well supplied with vegetables, berries, etc., lined up on Meldon avenue, Donora on "Market Day," Tuesday, and it did not take long to dispose of their goods, for Donora's women-folk were out en masse, and one would have thought for a time, they were squeezing and hustling around through the Pittsburgh or Allegheny markets. The only obstacle or mis-adjustment seemed to be that the women kept asking for double trading stamps, and the farmers not being posted went up in the air a little, but at last succeeded in convincing their alert customers that what they lost in stamps they gained in price, for it is said green stuff sold much cheaper than it does in the stores. This is said to have been a successful curb market opening and Saturday promises more wagons and greater quantities of stuff.

Fast Running Cause of Accident

Coroner James Heffran of Monongahela held an inquest Wednesday morning into the deaths of Joseph Warren Newell and Jos. H. Criswell, which occurered last Saturday evening. The jury rendered the verdicts as follows:—"We find that the death of Joseph Warren Newell and Joseph H. Criswell was due to a wreck of passenger train No. 142, between Daniels Run and Marrianna, on the M. & W. branch of the P. V. & C. Railroad. We further find from evidence that the engine of this train left the track on a curve, and further find that the reason of the engine leaving the track was due to the excessive speed at which the train was being run at the time of the accident."

Last night the Olympic theatre had the best pictures shown there for months. "The Blue and Gray," "The Foreign Spy" and "His Last Fight" were of the superior kind and drew applause from large audiences. They were of the kind that command attention, are appreciated and remembered after being seen.

DOUBLY PROVEN

Monessen Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence

This Monessen citizen testified long ago.

Told of quick relief—of lasting benefit.

The facts are now confirmed.

Such testimony is complete—the evidence conclusive.

It forms convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. Burns Wadsworth 270 Donner avenue, Monessen Pa., says: "I was in poor health for some time and suffered almost constantly from backache. I was subject to chills and dizzy spells. Knowing that Doan's Kidney Pills were good for kidney complaint, I procured a supply from the Hirsch Drug Co. Their use helped me from the first and before long I was cured. I am now enjoying good health and my kidneys do not bother me in the least." (From statement given Oct. 2, 1907.)

A PERMANENT CURE.

Mrs. Wadsworth was interviewed on Nov. 9, 1909 and she said: "The cure effected by Doan's Kidney Pills in my case has been permanent. I have recommended this remedy to my friends on several occasions and all who have used it, speak highly of the results received.
